

Sunset

April 2008

PHENOMENON

The $9,000 bottle of wine

Sunset's Sara Schneider takes us into the crazy world of California's cult Cabernets. Are they that much better than a BevMo splurge?

by Sara Schneider

...And Cults To Come

In his bellwether role, Jason Alexander of Vintrust advises keeping an eye on these promising Napa Valley Cabs.

Ghost Block The “ghosts” honored on the label are pioneer winemakers who rest in peace in a tiny 150-year-old cemetery near the Rock Cairn Vineyard this wine is from. The family who makes the wine has harvested that vineyard for at least 100 years. $55.

